Pilgrim Tours service fee structure:

When signing up for a tour offered by Pilgrim Tours, a deposit is required to confirm your reservation. Part of the deposit for the advertised tour includes a minimum of $100 per person service fee assessed by Pilgrim Tours that is non-refundable and non-transferable. The reason for not traveling can be either the traveler cancelling or the tour being postponed, suspended or cancelled due to but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorist acts, political unrest, epidemics, pandemics, or government imposed travel restrictions. In registering for a tour, a tour member agrees to the service fee as well as all terms and conditions as outlined on the tour reservation form.

PRICING

Quoted tour prices include planning, handling and operational charges and are based on the current rate of exchange and tariffs. In the event of a marked change in foreign exchange rates, fuel costs or tariff rates, tour costs are subject to revision. Such increases will be added to the final billing. Pilgrim Tours reserves the right to vary itineraries and prices, and to substitute facilities and hotels of equal or better quality if necessary.

RESPONSIBILITIES

These tour programs are operated by Pilgrim Tours and Travel, Inc., 3071 Main Street, Morgantown, Pennsylvania 19543. In common with other companies, Pilgrim acts only as an agent for tour members in arranging vacation services offered on this web site, including transportation, sightseeing, and accommodations through independent contractors. Air carriers, accommodations, and other suppliers (including but not limited to trains, cruises, ferries, motor coaches, hotels, tour guides, and restaurants) providing these services are independent contractors and are not agents, employees, servants, or joint ventures of the Company or its affiliates. All travel documents for services issued by the Company are subject to the terms & conditions specified by the contracted supplier and the laws of the countries in which the services are supplied. Tours postponed, suspended, or cancelled due to but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorist acts, political unrest, epidemics, or pandemics are subject to service fees by Pilgrim Tours and any supplier penalties. In registering for a tour, tour members agree to the terms and conditions for the tour they have registered for. Pilgrim Tours reserves the right in its sole discretion to make changes in the itinerary and is not responsible for expenses, loss of time, money, or other incidents resulting from a change of tour scheduling made for tour members. Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for any losses or damages of personal property, injuries, thefts, or unforeseen expenses incurred by any tour member.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

For your convenience, Pilgrim Tours is happy to book your airfare as part of a group air contract which allows the group to fly together at a set price. A group air contract requires a minimum of 10 passengers flying roundtrip from the same city, on the same air schedule, and on the same dates. Pilgrim Tours does not have the ability to guarantee assigned seating when making group air arrangements. Air carriers are responsible for seat assignments, and most group air contracts assign seats at the airport check-in on the day of departure. Once ticketed, group air tickets are not upgradable to premium economy or business class, and mileage credit is not guaranteed and is subject to the rules of each airline. If interested in an upgrade, please notify Pilgrim Tours at time of deposit and no later than 100 days before travel. All taxes, fuel charges, and security fees are subject to change based on the ticketing date. Passengers wishing to cancel or change their air reservations may be subject to change fees or cancellation penalties. Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for unforeseen flight delays or changes due to war, political unrest, acts of God, epidemics, or pandemics. Air schedules may be subject to change at the discretion of the airline. Pilgrim Tours does not accept liability in the case of any passenger being denied boarding by any airline carrier due to the carrier's overbooking of a flight.

TOUR MEMBERSHIP & MOBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Tour membership is available to all travelers and will not be withheld if the tour operator can furnish the requirements that an individual may need. Because most of our Retail Tour sightseeing schedules require Tour Members to walk 1-2 miles at a time using a moderate pace and sometimes navigate uneven terrain, we cannot accept persons who cannot do that and instead require special assistance. Should any Tour Member's participation somehow materially add to the tour operator's cost, the Tour Member will be expected to pay any additional costs. The Tour Director retains the right to require any non-sufficiently mobile persons to stay behind when deemed necessary, and also terminate the membership of any member displaying disruptive behavior, delaying or endangering fellow members and/or interfering with the operations of the tour. Private group tours vary in regards to mobility standards.

PROOF OF US CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORT, VISA & MINOR CHILDREN

REQUIREMENTS
All international tours require a current passport. Entrance to most countries requires your passport be valid for 6 months after your return date. Your passport information must be recorded by a Pilgrim Tours agent when making your reservation. Names on airline tickets must appear as shown on passport. Photocopies are not acceptable forms of identification. Minors traveling with either one parent or no parents must have a certified letter of permission from the parent or parents who is/are not traveling. If requested, this letter must be presented. Non U. S. Citizens are responsible to fulfill appropriate entry requirements of the destination country. Contact the local Consulate of the countries you plan to visit and transit for entry requirement information.

BAGGAGE

Although every effort is made to handle passengers' luggage as carefully as possible, Pilgrim Tours is not responsible for and does not assume liability or accept claims for loss of or damage to luggage due to breakage, theft or wear and tear through hotel, group carrier or airline handling. There are limitations by coach and air carrier as to the number and size of bags which can be carried onboard and in bulk storage. However, during the tour, passengers are permitted one checked suitcase and one carry-on bag unless otherwise noted. Some airlines may impose additional charges if you choose to check any baggage. Please contact the airline or refer to the airlines website for detailed information regarding checked baggage policies. This is a fee levied by the airlines, not Pilgrim Tours, and may be subject to change.

TRAVEL INSURANCE - AVAILABLE FOR ALL PASSENGERS

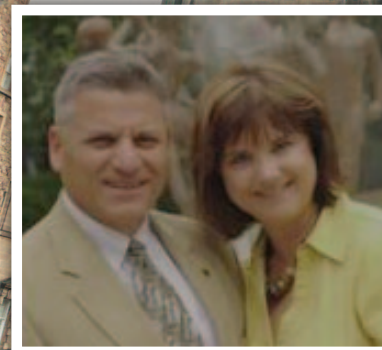

Pilgrim Tours strongly suggests purchasing a travel insurance plan. Be sure to check with your health insurance provider as many US medical coverage plans may not cover you outside of the country. Insurance costs are based on the total tour cost, including air taxes and charges listed under "Not Included." These charges are added to the final billing. Approximate amounts can be given at time of reservation in order to purchase the appropriate amount of insurance. Travel Insurance is non-refundable.

Itinerary subject to change while touring for the best interest of the group.

Day 1: Departure (Sept. 10)

Today we depart on an amazing opportunity to visit the historic centers of the Scottish and English Reformation. We depart and board our flight to Edinburgh, Scotland. Enjoy your flight and get some rest before your arrival tomorrow.

Day 2: Arrival Edinburgh, Stirling Castle (Sept. 11)

Upon your arrival in Edinburgh your tour guide will meet you before our transfer to Stirling Castle this afternoon. Stirling is one of the largest and most important castles, both historically and architecturally, in Scotland. The castle sits atop Castle Hill, an intrusive crag, which forms part of the Stirling Sill geological formation. It is surrounded on three sides by steep cliffs, giving it a strong defensive position. Its strategic location, guarding what was, until the 1890s, the farthest downstream crossing of the River Forth, has made it an important fortification from the earliest times. Several Scottish Kings and Queens have been crowned at Stirling, including Mary, Queen of Scots, in 1542. There have been at least eight sieges of Stirling Castle, including several during the Wars of Scottish Independence, with the last being in 1746, when Bonnie Prince Charlie unsuccessfully tried to take the castle. We return to Edinburgh for our dinner and evening stay. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 3: Edinburgh Castle, St. Giles Cathedral, John Knox (Sept. 12)

We begin our day in Edinburgh with a city tour that includes views of the historic sites of Edinburgh Castle, the Queen's Holyrood Palace and points out the Royal Mile. We visit the 15th century house where John Knox, leader of the Scottish Reformation and founder of the Presbyterian Church, lived for a short time before he died. Today it is a museum that holds an exhibition about his life. We also visit St. Giles Cathedral to which Knox was appointed minister of the church and listen to the guide's testimony of Knox's great personal sacrifice and the contribution of his powerful sermons. After this touring we will be transferred to York for our dinner and evening stay.

Day 4: York, Epworth, Nottingham (Sept. 13)

We begin our day in York with a city tour and behold its magnificent architecture. Visit the crumbling Clifford's Tower, the only remains of York Castle, and behold one of the most picturesque streets in York, which once served as butcher's row. The largest medieval cathedral in northern Europe, York Minster, is the city's crowning glory. After our morning in York we depart for Epworth, the birthplace of John and Charles Wesley and location for the World Methodist Council. Our journey takes us on to Gainsborough and the Old Hall. In the 16th century it was the meeting place of the early Pilgrim Fathers and John Wesley preached there several times. After our day of travel we will transfer to our hotel in Nottingham. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 5: Bedford, Bedford Jail, John Bunyan Meeting House and Museum, Cambridge, University of Cambridge, King's College Chapel, River Cam Tour (Sept. 14)

After breakfast we will depart for Bedford, the location where John Bunyan wrote his famous allegorical masterpiece, The Pilgrim's Progress, during his time in the Bedford Jail. Upon our arrival in Bedford, we will pass where the Bedford Jail was once located and then be transferred to the John Bunyan Meeting House and Museum. In the afternoon we will travel to Cambridge and visit the renowned University of Cambridge. With Protestant influences beginning in the early 16th century, the university was influential in the lives of Thomas Cranmer, Hugh Latimer, and Nicholas Ridley. We will finish the day with visits to the King's College Chapel, and a tour down the The River Cam. Our dinner and lodging will be in Cambridge for the evening. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 6: Oxford City Tour, University of Oxford, C.S. Lewis Tour, Christ Church College, University Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Magdalen College, Lamb & Flag (Sept. 15)

Upon our departure from Cambridge, we are transferred for a city tour of Oxford, the home to the University of Oxford, one of the world's most renowned universities. With lecturers and students such as John Wycliffe, John Foxe, William Tyndale, John Wesley,

Charles Wesley, and George Whitefield, the University of Oxford has long been a center for advanced academic influence and achievement and will be a fascinating visit on our city tour. Our tour of the city will also include a visit to Christ Church College, University Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Magdalen College, and the Lamb & Flag. C. S. Lewis was later staffed at Oxford. It was here that Lewis embraced Christianity, influenced by arguments with his Oxford colleague and friend J. R. R. Tolkien. He fought greatly up to the moment of his conversion, noting that he was brought into Christianity like a prodigal, "kicking, struggling, resentful, and darting his eyes in every direction for a chance to escape." We begin our C. S. Lewis Tour at the Headington Quarry Church, where Lewis attended and is buried. We also view the Kilns, the lovely house bought by C. S. Lewis, where he wrote "I never hoped for the like." After a full day of touring, we will be transferred to our Oxford hotel for dinner and evening stay. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 7: Bristol, The New Room, Stonehenge, Salisbury (Sept. 16)

We depart Oxford and make our way east to Bristol, the city where John Wesley taught and preached for many years. We begin our touring with a visit to John Wesley's Chapel "the New Room" and hear of his ministry before our transfer to another wondrous sight, the Neolithic monument of Stonehenge which dates to around 2800 BC. Our final stop for the day is in Salisbury for a visit to the famous cathedral. The builders of the gothic church claimed it to be "so great a church to the glory of God that those who come after us will think us mad even to have attempted it." After a full day of touring we will be transferred for our overnight stay in Salisbury. Dinner at the hotel.

Day 8: London, Westminster Abbey, Palace of Westminster, Big Ben, Tower Bridge, St. Paul's Cathedral, Harrods, Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace, Bunhill Cemetery (Sept. 17)

Following breakfast we will travel to London, the Capitol of the United Kingdom. Upon arrival in London you will be taken on a tour of England's largest city to see its many magnificent sights. Your tour will include visits to Westminster Abbey, St. Paul's Cathedral, Harrods, the changing of the guards at Buckingham Palace, and views of Palace of Westminster, Big Ben, Tower Bridge. Next, we enjoy a visit to Bunhill Cemetery where John Bunyan, Isaac Watts, John Gill, and Susanna Wesley are all buried. After a full day of sightseeing and history, you will transfer to your London hotel for our evening stay. Dinner on our own.

Day 9: Spurgeon's Metropolitan Tabernacle, Windsor Castle, Tower of London (Sept. 18)

This morning we visit the Tower of London, home of the famous Crown Jewels. Next we visit the Metropolitan Tabernacle, where the great Baptist preacher Charles Spurgeon (1834-1892) held his great revival meetings. He preached to as many as 6,000 people every Sunday, with copies of his sermons printed and distributed worldwide. During his lifetime he preached to an estimated ten million people. This afternoon, we will enjoy a visit to Windsor Castle. Dinner on your own.

Day 10: Return Home (Sept. 19)

Return home with the memories of your trip and challenged by the sacrifices made during the Scottish and English Reformations.
