TALKING WITH GOD: PART TWO

A message from Rev. Brian Episcopo

In Colossians 3, Paul insists we should, "Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful." He goes on to encourage us to be, "singing to God with gratitude in your hearts," and do everything in the name of Jesus, "giving thanks to God the Father." In just three short verses, he links peace with thanksgiving. I wonder just how much thankfulness is linked to peace. On a number of occasions, when I am most overwhelmed by my circumstances, stopping to thank God for the blessings in my life has yielded incredible peace. I wonder, then, how much of the pathway to a peaceful heart is getting all God's blessings in view and being grateful; especially for His Son, Jesus.
